If you are a new customer to EMerchants Limited you will need to provide ID documents to prove your identity.

Your identity is unique and worth protecting. This is why we make a point of getting to know customers – even before they open an account. We have good reasons for doing this. Criminals and terrorists often try to launder money by opening accounts using false identity details. By providing us with the information that we need, you will be helping us to make sure that we know exactly who we are dealing with and comply with stringent money laundering legislation.

Certifying your documents

Incorrect certification of documents is one of the main reasons for delays in getting accounts up and running. This checklist will take you through exactly how your documents have to be certified.

All documents you supply must be:

- A clear certified copy showing relevant page(s)
- Certified in English
- The date of certification must be no older than 3 months ago
- The 'original' certified copy (we will not accept copies of copies) as signed by the Certifier

Who Can Certify?

The person who certifies your documents must be independent of your application and from one of the following professions:

1. a person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner (however described);
2. a judge of a court;
3. a magistrate;
4. a chief executive officer of a Commonwealth court;
5. a registrar or deputy registrar of a court;
6. a Justice of the Peace;
